be given in every case and it does state that the amt of charge allce can be regulated & put when he is in charge of an office without having anything to do with his own office, while under M91 no charge allce will be admissible unless the work entailed a substantial increase of responsibility and done additional work. If the Conveyance allce is specially sanctioned for doing the HQ work, there seems to be no necessity for giving any charge allce. If however the Administrative Deptt thinks that the requirements of M91 are satisfied, then they may sanction an charge allce at the rate of which will be one tenth of the pay of the officer in this case the Conveyance allce need not be given. This is a case falling under M91 (1) (a) and under (b) of M91 (2). The Attorney should address reasonable considering the short period that he was actually in charge but after the remarks made in the Secretary's note that the charge, though the period was short involved substantial additional responsibility the sanctioned Conveyance charge in Conveyance there is no financial objection to sanction the same.

Memo

Mr. S. Narayana Rao was in charge of the Head Quarter Estabt during the absence of Mr. B. D Raghavendra Rao on privilege leave for 12 days from 23.8.11 to 3.9.11, both days inclusive and claimed the following allowances for the period:

Q

(1) Conveyance allowance at Rs 40 per mensem

(2) Charge allowance at Rs 40 per mensem under article 91 of the M. S. Regns for the period from 23.8.11 to 27.8.11

Govt Orders: 11703-4 / med 245-07-2 & 12.3.08

2920-1 P / med 54-08-2 & 17.9.08

The observations recorded in the notes regarding Mr Narayana Rao's claim to Charge allowance for the period are summarized below:—

1) There are no grounds to reconsider the Govt Orders dated 14.3.12 as Mr Narayana Rao was in charge of an appointment to which an officer of the status of Asst Surgeon - whatever may be his grade - can be appointed.

N

Mr K R Sreenivasagam Asst Secy.

(2) Mr Narayana Rao was, at the time he held Charge of the Head Quarter Estabt, only a Sub Asst Surgeon (old Scale) & as the officer in charge of the Head Quarter Estabt may be of the grade of Asst Surgeon, Charge allowance under article 61 M.S. Regns may be given to Mr Narayana Rao, calculated on Rs 150 - the pay of the last grade of Asst Surgeons (old Scale)

The late Mr D. Devaraj Urs, 2d Councillor

(3) Charge allowance need not be given necessarily in every case. If the Conveyance allowance has been sanctd, there is no necessity for giving any Charge allowance

Financial Branch.

If however the administrative Dept. thinks that there was substantial increase of responsibility, they may sanction a charge allowance under article 91 n. S.Regs. but in this case no Conveyance allowance need be given. This is what appears reasonable considering the short-period that Mrs Narayana Rao was in charge of the Headquarters Establt. If it is considered that the charge involved substantial additions to his responsibility ~~Mrs Narayana Rao~~ there is no financial objection to sanction both the allowances.

It should may be noted that Mrs Narayana Rao was given Charge allowance for having been in Charge of the Govt. Eye Infirmary even for shorter period than 12 days. Vide G.O no. 6687 Med 93-11-2
